Return to Work Program

The Salvation Army Haven Return to Work Program assists homeless veterans in getting back to work by offering a structured, individually designed case management plan to assist veterans to become employable and secure career employment.

The RTW Program can assist your clients:

- assessing barriers to employment
- up-to-date job leads
- connecting with employers
- an individualized in-depth job search
- creating/updating resumes
- completing applications (including online applications)
- computer related job searches
- email
- practice interviews
- connecting with other programs and resources
- other supportive services

If you think that the RTW Program could be beneficial to your client, please fill out the RTW referral form and have your client bring it over to our offices located in Bldg 212 Rm 149.
