

PVJOBS WANTO Program

(Women in Apprenticeship and Nontraditional Occupations)

WOMEN – Earn Great Money with a Career in Construction!

- Electrician
- Sheetmetal Worker
- Painter
- Roofer
- Plumbing
- Operating Engineer
- Flooring
- and more . . .

What will you be doing 3 months from now? If you start now, you could be earning an excellent starting salary and have a meaningful career ahead of you.

As an apprentice in the construction crafts, you will earn about $13 per hour as a starting salary, with scheduled raises over 2 – 5 years until you reach journeyman status where you will earn around $30 per hour or more. Wage package includes full benefits including medical, vacation and retirement.

If you are interested in a meaningful career as a construction craftswoman, attend an orientation and learn about all the opportunities available to you in the field of construction.

What: Orientation for Women in Construction
When: Every Thursday at 10:00 A.M.
Where: PVJOBS
9100 S. Sepulveda Blvd., Suite 200
Los Angeles, CA 90045
Tel: (310) 590-1385

If you have no previous construction experience, you must attend an 8 week, unpaid, pre-apprentice training program. It is here where you will receive basic training and learn about construction site safety, basic tool use, and the different crafts available to you. After successful completion of the pre-apprentice program, you will be indentured into one of the trade unions of your choice where you will undertake a paid apprenticeship.

ALL SERVICES AND TRAINING PROVIDED FREE!

All services are provided to you at no cost. You will not have to pay for our services, your training, union initiation fees, tools, or work related clothing. In addition, there are a variety of other supportive services available to you to insure your success. We want you to succeed.
