

Is Your License Suspended Because of Old Tickets?

Ask About

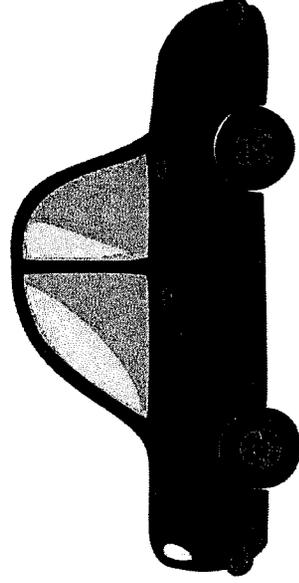

Traffic Ticket Amnesty

If payment on your ticket was originally due on or before January 1, 2013, the amount you owe the court could be reduced by at least 50%.

- In order to qualify for debt reduction, you must not have made a payment on the ticket after September 30, 2015.
- If you owe victim restitution or have an outstanding warrant on a misdemeanor or felony, you will not be eligible for debt reduction until the restitution or warrants are resolved.
- If you receive SSI, SSP, CalWORKS, Tribal TANF, SNAP/Food Stamps, County Relief/General Assistance, CAPI, IHSS, or Medi-Cal, or if you qualify as low-income, GC Services will reduce the amount you owe by 80%.

No matter when your ticket was due, you are eligible to have your license reinstated.

- You must agree to a payment plan, but GC Services is required to offer you a reasonable payment plan based on what you can afford.
- GC Services will charge $50 to participate in the reinstatement program.
- Once you have made the first payment, GC Services will release its hold on your license.

What tickets qualify for amnesty?

Most tickets will qualify for amnesty, including traffic violations (e.g, no registration, no insurance, cell phone, red light, stop sign), pedestrian violations (e.g, jaywalking, metro fare evasion), and failures to appear or failures to pay. BUT parking tickets, reckless driving, DUIs, and other serious offenses do not qualify for amnesty.

Can I be put on a payment plan?

GC Services is required to give you a payment plan based on what you can afford. If GC Services does not offer you a payment plan you can afford, you should ask for one.

How much do I have to pay?

GC Services will charge a $50 administrative fee, but if you are eligible for the 80% reduction, the fee will be waived. If you ask for a payment plan, GC Services will ask for a minimum payment of $25 per month.

How do I reinstate my license?

Your license will be reinstated 7-10 business days after you make your first payment on your payment plan OR if you pay the entire amount you owe. At that time, you should follow up with the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) to get your license. When your license is reinstated, the DMV will charge a $55 reinstatement fee.

How long do I have to sign up?

The amnesty program ends March 31, 2017.

How do I apply?

1. If your tickets are from Los Angeles County, go to www.trafficticketamnesty.com and complete the Amnesty Participation Form.
2. Call GC Services at 1-800-950-6280 (English) or 1-800-939-8068 (Spanish) to determine if you're eligible and ask for a payment plan.
3. Make your first payment online, on the phone, or in person at a traffic courthouse.
4. Go to the DMV and ask them to reinstate your license ($55 fee).
